General Pitt Rivers,
Sir,

here with I forward a drawing as proposed for the Chandeliers. —

I consulted Mr Webb on the subject and from the sketches underneath you will see his suggestions about how to work it to the greater advantage.

If you think it necessary to make a rough model I will do so.

Yours most obediently
W Bar Kentin

Sir,

here with I beg to enclose estimate for the Chandeliers - the iron Chain will cost about £ or 9^d per foot as near as I can judge - this will however best be seen when I have the length required as it must be strong accordingly -

Yours most obedtly

Sir,

I have a very nice miniature portrait of the Earl of Bathurst in his robes. It is on paper & in respect to the work of the chevalier Labrie. The dimensions

5 x 4 in. exclusive of margin. Price

2 guineas

my own opinion of it is that it was done for the Emperor.

I am a genealogist & much prefer to show employment, tracing the remote ancestor of English families. This foreign sources & illustrative pedigrees either by engraving & photographs or by ms. matter.

Should I may have the pleasure of receiving your commands

I remain steadily yours
