

8452

W. H. WELLS,
Silversmith & Jeweller.
VALUATIONS FOR PROBATE &c.

55, Piccadilly,
London, W.

Sept. 21st 1855

General Pitt-Rivers.
Proseur gardens.

Dear Sir

I have consulted Mr. Wells with regard to your offer for the Sarcophagus Black Jack & in consequence of our season having been such a disappointment he is willing to accept £16-10-0 for it. It is an extremely fine & rare piece & is honestly worth more.

I am

Sir
Yours Obedt. Servt.
W. H. Wells
J. P.

W. H. WELLS,
Silversmith & Jeweller.
VALUATIONS FOR PROBATE &c.

5457

55, Piccadilly,
London, W.

August 29th 1855

To General Pitt-Rivers.

Sir

I have consulted Mr. Wells about the two William & Mary flat Candelsticks & the Byron Black Jack, the lowest price we could accept for them is £70. viz. the two Candelsticks £50 & the Black Jack £20.

I am

Sir

Your Obedt. Servt.

Wm.

W. H. Wells

J.P.