London, ~~21~~ ²⁷ October 1882.
S.W.

Sir.

Penywern Road.

I regret that I should have to trouble you again in this matter, but the Kensington Collector reports, that the house in Penywern Road was partly furnished during the year in question, and that the Rates were paid for the whole year. Kindly inform me when you gave up possession of the house, and the date when your lease expired.

I am Sir

Your most-obedient Servant.

SIR,

I have received a Warrant for the IMMEDIATE Collection of the undermentioned Taxes assessed upon you and left unpaid at Penywen Road, Kensington.

The time allowed by the Commissioners of Taxes for recovering these arrears being limited, I have to request payment at my office on FRIDAY next, or a written statement of your objections (if any).

I am, your obedient Servant,

FREDERICK H. SMALLMAN,

COLLECTOR.
