SIR :

From English papers I learn that you have just finished the 4th volume of your "Excavations in Cranborne Chase".

On behalf of completion of a copy I have in stock
I should feel greatly obliged for your kindly informing me whether you would be ready to let me have one copy of this new volume and at what price.

With best thanks in anticipation I am,

SIR,

yours most obedient servant

RUSHMORE, Salisbury, England

SIR :

I am much obliged indeed for your kind
favour of 16th inst. offering me one copy of the new |4th| volume of your "Excavations in Cranborne Chase" at 5 £ .

Pray have the kindness to send me one copy of this volume; if not too heavy the best and cheapest wa
will be to send it by parcel-post |via Belgium| otherwise please send it to my London Agent Mr Young J. Pentland, of 38 West Smithfield E.C. for enclosure. Immediately on hearing from you I shall remit the amount due, postage to Leipzig or London included.

I may be permitted to mention here that I make a specialty of books in that line and for that reason I doubtless shall soon have to write for more copies.

Very respectfully yours
ppa. Karl W. Hiersemann

"Excavations in Cranborne Chase".

Now I have an inquiry from another customer of mine who at one time bought from me the former volumes of your valuable work and who now of course wants to have the new volume also.

Having learnt from Mr Quaritch that he
