Dear Sir,
We have much pleasure in advising you of the despatch per L. S. N. Ry. Goods, the box van, this evening, and trust it will arrive with the contents safely. You will find packed in front of the van about 300 pieces (those you bought last), the others, where practical, have been divided with mats for protection. You will find it easy to put together again, as each piece is marked and the corresponding piece is done in duplicate, (thus X on 1 piece and X on another, means the 2 join there).
The key we have forwarded to you per post separately, to fit the padlock on the box van, and kindly return all mats & packing inside the van when emptied.
P.S. Unable to go per Passenger, it weighing over the requisite weight.
We are Dear Sir
Yours faithfully Bradley & Co

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 12th inst to hand, we are pleased to hear the box van & contents arrived safe. We have collected 11 pieces of stone from the Earl's Court Exhibition of which 3 are broken we are packing them in separate cases, as it will be the safest way as they are very brittle, we will advise you when sent off. Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of yours of 15th inst, and respecting the missing portions of window, we beg to say we do not know of any having been left behind, as everything was duly packed and forwarded in the box van, which was pointed out to our Mr. Bradley, and the packing was under the charge of the partner and Mr Bradley's son.

We are Dear Sir
