

Sturminster Newton,

Blandford 22nd March 1885

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Mr. Fenner was of the same opinion as myself and must strongly so that it would not do to withhold the cheques for one moment to discharge the hominist orders so I at once sent them and am beg to enclose you the receipts for the same which kindly take care of as they will be required when disposing of Davis' account, there is not the smallest doubt that you will be able to keep the amount of the two cheques from the balance due to Davis but if this man is in the verge of Bankruptcy it will require great care in dealing with him, the danger is with an order of a bank made that in addition to enforcing payment a charge of contempt of court may very likely be made.

Shogren has returned from London I hear but I have not seen him yet. I remain

Yours very obedt. Servant.
