General Pitt Rivers
Sir

I beg to enclose Mr Allnutts letter respecting a colt for your own riding.
He is the property of an Officer of an Highland Regiment stationed at Windsor.
Who purchased him from Mr Thompkins of Reading for £85 and came now

Bought for 50 guineas on account of the Regiment leaving Windsor, I have written Mr Allwitt that he may expect to hear from you on Tuesday, a Telegram would insure his having someone to show you the Lot in case of a previous appointment,

I remain Sir

Your Obedient Servant

John Campbell
