Sir!

Yours very kind letter was delivered to me in that moment. I thank you for your great amability. I would have been very happy to make your acquaintance and to profit from your great experience in antiquary matters, but unfortunately I want the necessary time for that excursion, as I have to be in Germany when our greater excavations begin.

With the most sincere thanks for the hospitality offered to me, and the expression of the regret that is not granted to me to make the personal acquaintance of a gentleman so renowned in Germany I am

yours most Truly

Sarwey
Lieutenant General.
