

To put you off &
so disappointed - I had been so delighted at the thoughts of your perhaps coming - but you will come later
won't you?

Always your aff' friend

Dear General Pitt Rivers

I am so dreadfully distressed and annoyed for I now hear that the workmen won't be out of the house
till about Whitmonday
we are having something done to the upstairs rooms - I wrote to you this morning

the moment I had heard from my mother,
before getting up,
confidently believing
that the rooms would be ready in 3 or 4
days - and now

I hear this!
From what my mother
said I so much fear that it is just now that you could come - but I hope this is not the case + that you will come to us after Whitsuntide - I
cant say how unhappy
I am at having
