My dear Sir

I cannot thank you sufficient for
your very kind letter
I am happy to begin
the section at the end of the work also beginning first - and
on the line you have laid out for me -
I had read your work

in the same style & thought that I ought to follow your system - before I begin I will have the levels taken carefully so that every one can be located - for I imagine it will be only by the most trivial remains that we shall be able to fix any date -

If your suggestions
would allow of it I should be most grateful for your personal advice in the spot. I am hoping to get two or three Dilchester labourers, which will help materially as it will prevent I trust much being passed over
I thought of beginning this
