THE RED HOUSE, ASCOT,
BERKS.

20. 6. 93.

My dear Pitt Rivers

I received, the other day,
a fragmentary, unsigned, note,
which, from internal evidence,
I may safely conclude to be from you.

You say you expect to be in London again, "before long."
Could you kindly give me any more definite idea as to the probable time; I mean, of course, only approximately?

I ask, because Von Hügel is ready to come up at any time, but is likely to be living out of town for some months yet.

He is to come here to pack up my collections here, and I should like to arrange it so that he could do both things at one time.

You speak of "the box" in which my things were. Mess<sup>rs</sup> King report having sent you three boxes full; but very likely you wrote "the box" in a generic sense, to signify the articles had been taken out of what they were packed in.

Yrs very truly

Arthur Gordon
