The Square
Ringwood
Sep. 11th 1874

Sir,

Will you kindly inform General Pitt-Rivers that I shall be glad if he could come on Friday next to see the Curios, say by the train which arrives at Ringwood about 3.30 p.m.?

Our house is a shoe
warehouse opposite Cox & Hick's drapers.

Will write again tomorrow,

but have sent thro' you
so as to secure a day for the inspection.

All writing in great haste.

Yours truly
E. B. Savage
