

with it, I cannot say.

We intend to go straight to the museum (12.30).

After lunch visit the Lamer tree, King John's house, & pass through the park, which I understand you will allow, about 4.30
or five o'clock.

I remain

Yours faithfully

James Kelland

L1049

The Canal,
Salisbury.

Sept. 15. 96

Dear Sir

Doran Webb has sent your letter on to me. I find that before leaving Salisbury yesterday
he concluded all the arrangements for the nurses' outing on Monday.

and has fixed us
to the Lemley route.

I say "us" because I am one of the hon: medical officers,
a former house surgeon, & a few weeks ago,
a patient of the

Infirmary -

It is as a small
return for kindness

I received that

I am now paying for this expedition.

I may say that the nurses unanimously
selected Rushmore;
though whether they were moved by a desire for information (to be obtained at the museum) about
the Romano-British period, or whether the Scotch Matron's description of the foot-
like sheep of S. Kilda
had anything to do