TRAPS HILL HOUSE,
LOUGHTON,
ESSEX.

Sept 20. 1894

Dear Sir

I beg to thank you
for sending me a copy of your 'guide to the Museum etc' which I am very glad to add
to my collection.

With regard to our arch^d. Soc's collection at Colchester I have asked the Hon. Sec. to write & inform you

which Vol. we have here of your account of the Excavations at Cranborne Chase.

I note your remarks
upon the "imitation" Samian & believe you are quite right - the earlier highly glazed ware certainly resists the chemical action of the soil far better.

With many thanks I remain, Yours very truly J. C. Gould
