

2/ Wick and John's Croats.

They are most interesting relics of prehistoric times, and Dr. Anderson of Edinburgh and Dr. Loos of Solapic have visited them two or three times.

I have now brought some of the "finds" home and should be delighted if you would do me the honour of inspecting them.

Could you do me that favour the best plan would be for you to dine and sleep here, and both Mr. Barry and I would be much pleased to see you.

Dear Sir

Hoping that you will dispense with the ordinary routine of a formal introduction, I take the liberty of addressing you as a Brother Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries being very anxious to show you some curios from, and photos of, Four Brocks which I have been excavating for the last year or two on my estate in Leathers, at Skitt, between
