

L1085

14, BRECHIN PLACE,
SOUTH KENSINGTON.

Oct 24th

71894 pleased with Kate. We all enjoyed ourselves so much at Trushmore and I my drives with you.

I hope your party is a lively one now, but we have rain all day today yesterday was lovely. All the children send their love, will you thank ^{her} ~~her~~ for her letter.

Your Affec daughter
Annsula Scott.

Dearest Papa.

I have seen about the saddle bags for the saga the smallest size in imitation ones are 18 inches square and are 3/6 each and the larger ones 5/6 each the real ones are different sizes and are 15/6 a pair Harrod stores would redo the whole sofa with 6 bags at top and six at the bottom (not real ones) with velvet in between a restuffe for £8-5-6. I give you this as some idea. Willy Kate & I are going to dine and go to the play with the Seymours they came here to tea yesterday.

I have bought some work for the show next year but it was very expensive £2. 14. 6. I wanted to get a bit for Kate too but could not afford it as well it was a 1st. They went to their dancing yesterday the mistress was so pleased to see them and pushed them to the front at me, she found Patience had got rather stiff in the holidays, but was