My dear Pitt Rivers

Do you recollect my taking some photographs of the "early hunter", when I had the pleasure of being at Rushmore some weeks ago?

They are not very good; but you must remember that they were taken under difficulties and in a heavy shower of rain. Such as they are,
I hope you will accept these prints of them, for I think you said that the hunter had not been photographed before?

With my own and my daughters

THE RED HOUSE

ASCOOT HERRING

kindest remembrances to Mr Pitt Rivers, remain

Yrs most sincerely
