Jefford-Lwyys Reddy -
Salisbury

Dear Sir

I should have been most-happy to accept your kind invitation to Rushmore for the 14th of August, but most-unfortunately,
I shall not be at home, as I have promised to go to Cornwall on the 6th for a fortnight.

It will however give me great pleasure to do as you suggest, and write out a short communication on the geology of the neighbourhood, but I should like to consult you on the subject, and if you are soon coming) down into the Country I will take an opportunity of calling upon you at any time that may be convenient to you before the 6th.

I remain

Yours truly

W. R. Andrews.

July 21st 1883.
