LABOUR HOME BROTHERS.

The Church Army Headquarters,

130, Edgware Rd., London, W.

31st Dec. 1894

Dear General Rivers

As the Church

Army is a national walking & awing movement to benefit the selected and deserving destitute in our various Labour Homes without respect of caste or Creed and as we are at present turning away hundreds of helpless young men and women for lack of funds and space we implore your aid.

Nearly all our staff work without any pay.

I only ask for £1-1-0, but as your name and influence will induce others to give larger sums, we earnestly hope that you will grant us this favour.

Yours faithfully

W. Carline
