Dear General

I am very much obliged for the handsome vol., which came to hand safely.

Of course you have sent a copy to the British Museum library. Allow me to suggest that the Guildhall Library would be a proper recipient. I think it was for some time the only public library in London, and it is a very good library.

Has it ever occurred to you that some one (R. S. or otherwise) should take up our old earthworks from the military side?

I've thrown out a hint sometimes to Ordnance Survey officers, but they haven't yet risen to it.
I think that it would need a special survey.

Yours very truly
A. A. A.
