My dear Pitt Rivers

I could not see the accounts of the London & Middlesex the other day, but was informed by one or two members who should know, that the Society was in a satisfactory condition for a small one of about 350 to 400 members - that they have invested all the compositions in Consols amounting to over £100 - I am in the Capacity of Treasurer one of the new trustees - they have a balance of about £130 but owe a printers bill.

J. E. Price having retired from business has been elected Secretary at a salary of £50 a year - I think this will be a good thing for the Soc^y as he will be able to attend to its & increase its value, so increase its income. Between us it should be very flourishing.

Hitherto the Sec^y was an Hon^{ry} one, consequently the publication got into arrears, w^{ch} now must be brought up to date.

With best regards

Yours as of old
J. H. H. H. H. H.
