Sir. 8/- sent on
Feb. 11/95.

Your name having been mentioned to me by your late gamekeeper Mr. G. Bennett as a collector of antiquities. And having an axe used in warfare prior to the Roman Invasion I take the liberty of submitting it to you for your inspection and with a view to purchase. It was found by me in the bog at Ascot 3 years ago next June I being at that time an allotment holder thereon. I have Sir obtained the opinion of several Gentlemen used in these matters and they are agreed in thinking it to be of some value to an antiquary.

Trusting you will pardon the liberty I have taken I remain

Yours Respectfully

John Peters.

P.S. I have forwarded the axe per. Parcels Post.
