

Dorchester. Feb. 13. 1893 (2.11.73)

Dear Sir,

Pray accept my best thanks for your kindness in answering my letter so quickly and, in a manner so interesting.

The drawing enclosed (which I retain until I hear to the contrary) is very curious surely.

As you have perhaps observed in the programme of the Dorset F. & C. Club Meeting, I am to read a paper on Dorchester antiquities with views for research. If you do not forbid me I shall preface it, or supplement it, by also reading your letter of Jan. 7. on the subject.

Pray excuse haste and a consequently most imperfect recognition of your kindness.

I am
yours truly
A. J. Moore.
