Cambridge.

March 16, 1895.

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Should you be at the Athens when you will perhaps kindly witness
your support for my voting ballot (Monday next the 18th).

I am very anxious to get in with me during so as to be able to see something of old friends who since I have come to Cambridge, have been more & more slipping out of my life.
Yours truly
A. von Hügel
