Dear Sir

I found the accompanying portrait of Mr. Dr. Lane Fox among some papers left by my father, who, I believe, was for some years a colleague of Mr. Lane Fox as an attaché at the Naples Legation when Sir William Temple was British Minister. It occurred to me that the portrait may be of interest to you, and if so I shall be glad if you will accept it.

You will perhaps pardon my mentioning that I am making a collection of postage stamps and should be very glad to receive any old English or foreign issues which you may possibly have ~~by you~~ to spare.

Yours very faithfully

Charles E. Fagan

General Pitt-Rivers.
