My dear General

Prof. Sully, the writer on ~~Psychology~~ &c, whom doubtless you well know by reputation, is making an enquiry, in which the similitude of the drawings of children & those of savages is a principal feature.

I have told him of

Your curious & important collection of the latter, & send this note as an introduction of him to you.

He will explain, himself, more fully, what he wants

Very faithfully,
Francis Galton

General Pitt-Rivers F.R.S.
