My dear Father

There is no fixed rule about fluting at the sides. I have seen work with & without, but in this case perhaps side flute would look better.

I cannot say will leave London until next Wednesday week as I am sending pictures to the R.A. in any case I could not do the painting, as I have no experience in oil painting & would in all probability make a mess of it. but Alex has done that sort of work at the jubilee lodge. I don't think you were mentioned my name in connection with the printing of the ^{1st} issue
