THE RED HOUSE,
ASCOT,
BERKS.

10. 8. 83.

My dear Pitt Rivers

I have kept you so very long waiting for my final decision as to the disposal of that part of my collection which is with you that I certainly cannot complain of any delay on your side in replying to my note of the 1st.

At the same time, I think

THE RED HOUSE.
ASCOT.
BERKS.

it as well to write again, not in the least with the view of harrasing you, but to let you know that von Hügel will be in town in about a fortnights time and is quite willing then to undertake the packing if you have no objection to his doing so.

Yrs very truly
Arthur Gordon
