My dear father

I think the cut hedge idea would look better than the arches and columns, but I am still in ~~the~~ favour of painting it all green, the sides of imitation oaks would never look well.
I should think Walter man Hann would be able to furnish ideas about

The painting.

I am coming down on Wednesday.

That the above interior is exposed to wind rain etc and unless some special arrangement is made, the painting will not last more than a year.

I don't know how short zinc would take paint.

I sh^d of thought it would be more likely to peel off than on wood.

The whole point is
