

Laundry, Carpentry,
and the Agricultural Creeps of Whipping, Shearing Hedging & Hurdling. I even tried to say all was a comparative failure except Carpentry owing many of the spottiness of the people - I am at a loss to know what to do but unless there is some reason shown for the continuation I shall vote against the abolition of the Central Office. I feel the impotence of the principles of Technical Education, perhaps the work will never be relegated to the towns. The rural type

Pitt House
Johnston Street
Bath

L1259
WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

April 20. 1895
My dear friend Pitt Rivers Under the soothing influence of this legislation place should be given to is same and looks legislative I am writing my answering address from which I thought I had made myself exempt when the Member of the Field Club insisted upon my keeping the President of the but this is not to be so as you gave me last year very valuable notes of the work you had done in 1893. which the members must appreciate. perhaps you may like to do so this year. It will be a mean year.

of giving the public an idea of the progress we are making in filling up the history of Roman British life & the county as the excavations at Icknetaun are revealing the urban life of that date. If I live till next year I hope to be able to tell something about Cornish Ditch.

I expect Alick will see some bit corners next week at the County Council Technical Education.
The expense of the main road will be perhaps 2000.
As far as I understand the quarter I think Pearce Edgworth is on the wrong track in doing away with the central offer a mobility. The scheme about the street for the sake of saving the road pavement the transfer some of a few pounds in rates. In my parish of Whitehead the share will be £13. It will be far preferable to let the parishes contributions be merged into a scheme which will supply the County with a perfect system of Technical Education.

In the last 3 years I have taken the greatest pains as Chairman of the Muller Urban District to carry out the scheme on far as I can remember we had Ambalame (who

L1259

WHATCOMBE.
BLANDFORD.
LAND TELEGRAPH

is too raw. and how can it be otherwise when our farmers are always changing their labourer. The old loyal Parsons are chased out. As many new names are expected
as in the town of Dorset on my village. I think there are no left there of out of 7 whose names were to the list some 5 years ago. I have no know from the name Call in town but who are names meant?
Pome, Coe and just?

Lord Portman
has received the sum of £1000.!

I remain
Your most obedt
A. Mansel-Pleydell

This is Purgatory - hot water without the fire