 of the Asiatic Society,
 that he hoped and
 believed that before
 long the Government must awaken to
 the importance of it.
 I hardly like to ask
 an other favour now,
 but I think it is important. I am anxious to ride a bicycle while living in London for the sake of the exercise & so I much like to possess one.

My dear Father

The enclosed is
 the bill for the two most important of the books you were kind enough to say
 you wd. buy for; &
 there are a few others I have had to get to the value of about £2.

I have promised
Prof. Rhy. David I
will join the Asiatic Society so as to enable me better to pursue
my studies with
the help of the library. I really feel that although there is no immediate

prospect of this work paying, I am better & indeed more profitably employed upon
it than upon any other. There are so few in the field
to the work to be done is practically inexhaustible.
