

Much obliged. Mr King also spoke of a painting I believe of the garden at Rushmore which he thought was in Jervis's garden.
This would no doubt be an acquisition & the loan of it would be a favour as would that of anything good in the way of Pictures connected with the County.

I am Sir
Your Obedt Servt

Pictures & drawings & prints of Dorset in general - & especially anything illustrative of the Hardy's tales.
I shall call it "Wessex".
Mr Hardy takes much interest in it.
If you thought you could spare me the pictures now at the Grosvenor for say a month I should be
