My dear Pitt Rivers

I forward herewith some copies of papers I have recently read on the Archaeology of Cambridge but write to ask for a bit of information In your museum you have a jug labelled 11th century from a disused well at Barnwell near Cambridge.

Can you tell me anything more about it - What year was it found?

It is something of this form

with a ring and furrow ornament like that on Pl. XIII fig 8 of the 2nd paper on the Cambridge Ditcher which I send you -

I have been in bed all this term with congestion of the lungs and had to put off my papers at the Antiquaries, but Hope is putting me on again for the 20th

Park Harrison turned up here the other day - I had hardly
