

Early the next week
and delighted to have you then to take you over
to ~~St~~ Northfield Lane
and Silchester
and if you care
to stay on after
we are obliged to return to London
you are most welcome & do

Dear Genl Pitt Rivers
I hear you are going
& be kind enough
to lend me some
part. abt the Pitt Family. I shall be most obliged
and am through-
ly to be trusted.

G. daughter in law
 tells me that you
 are thinking of
 coming to our
 neighbourhood
 this week. Wish you could make it the end of the week and

Come to us on Sat the 22nd for a few days.
 All this week
 we shall be
 at Ascot but
 shall be at Shal-lowfield from Friday evening
 till some day

believe that the
of W. has had the
wall examined
and found that the Gipsy plates
had been removed
and that the Coppings were in a dreadful state
of dilapidation.
Ode has put these

do so. He leaves
3, SLOANE GARDENS:
some servants
in the house &
the carriage
& horses so that you could go
every day to Silchester if you wished.
The Wellington

Will also be away
till Sat the 22nd.
If you do think
of coming I wd
do come early
on Saturday.

The traps & their plates were dug
up in a field at Burghfield - a long way from

I say. I think there are 5 male & female and
they are all in pieces. Evidently
the plain parts
of the traps were
cut off for sale
and these pieces
hidden for fear of detection. I

fragments in the Church. (I think.)

I forgot ^{all} the names but there is one)

of George Pitt - one
of Lora Pitt & one
of Mary Pitt.

only one of the 17th Century. We are close &

I. Saye but a long drive from Sitchester.

Truly
