Dear General.

I am told you were interested in a little picture in the Wessex Exhib<sup>n</sup> of "The King's Mound and the Colts" The Cromlech at Gorwell. In case you should like to possess this (& it could not be in more appropriate hands) it is to be bought for £10. It is catalogued at £12.12.0. Apart from its archaeological interest, it is, I submit, a very nicely painted & the artist is thought to have a fulcrum before him & a number of his contributions have already been sold.
