

with their ponies & mules.

We leave on Thursday Aug 2nd your affec. daughter Mrsula Scott.

L2344
Hotel Mont Cervin
Zermatt
Canton Valais
Switzerland
July 24th 1895
Dearest Papa.

If I can find another anvil I will get one, I saw some more after I had got the one I wrote to about exactly the same only much larger, and we made the man show us how he used it; that was at billars. I could not find any thing else there.
We are not going to Berne now as we go to Lucerne by the Lurka Pass driving, but I will get the stools at Lucerne do you mind sending me some money by a registered letter as we only have a certain sum with us and when it comes to an end we must go home. so if you want the musical stools at about 2 $ each with other things you see it would come to nearly 5 $ which would mean two or three days more away and of course if I do not find the things or they dont come to so much I can give it you back. I wish you were here I am sure it would do you so much good. the air is lovely 5400 ft. high and we went up on mules today to the Gornier Glacier the children were so excited especially Marcia she notices every thing I think more than the others. The mountain railrode from Visp here winds up by the river Visp which is a torrent in some places and the whole way it is quite lovely, it looks very dangerous in places right on precipices.

We are going to Duffelalp tomorrow on mules for the day 7305 ft. high.
We had a long journey yesterday from 9 to 6. I was tired but today able to do this long expedition and now writing, when I first came every thing tired me. I think I shall be as strong as a horse when I get back. Who did Blaise say was rude to her and why did she say it - that made her write about it. I hope you are pretty well. Inyles would like this place such a curious village and old tumble down places all dark brown wood and then the mountains behind and the guides about