ROYAL ARCHÆOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

20, HANOVER SQUARE,

August. 1. 1895. LONDON, W.

Dear Sir.

I am sorry to have to trouble you again but in consequence of the defalcations of our late clerk it has been necessary to overhaul the whole of the accounts.

I find the said clerk was in the habit lately of taking a receipt to Messrs Cox and Co. and exchanging it for the subscription. In order to prevent this in future will you be so kind as to fill up the enclosed form so that your banker may pay direct to our bankers. I shall be obliged if you will forward the same to your bankers. The subscription for 1895 does not seem to have been drawn.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours truly,

Arthur H. Lyell.

Lt. Gen. Pitt Rivers.
