Please don't scruple & negative
the above notion.

Yours very truly

I suppose that in collecting weapons you ignore such atrocious modernisms as wood-sticks!
I happen to have 2 types, both fairly ~~good~~ old, & one with a fine blade.
I shall be glad to hand over, if of any service. One is a prodder, with a short blade coming out with a spring

Dear General

As I now see a chance of getting into your neighbourhood, & of doing myself the pleasure of paying you that visit which I have long looked forward to,
I write to ask whether it would be convenient if I were to be with you just at the end of the month.

I fear that you may be thinking then of little else

then proceed that.

But please don't scruple to put me off, if the following suggestion does not thoroughly suit your convenience.

I want to visit a colleague, at Salisbury, before the Brit. Assoc. meeting. He will be away, on holiday, till the 31st: so it struck me that I might go to you that afternoon & have the Sunday with you, going on to Salisbury on Monday Sept. 7.

I might, instead, go to you (from Salisbury) in the afternoon of Sat. 7 Sept. But I expect that I ought not ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{be at} home at that time; for it is very likely that I may have to start early in the morning of Mon. 9 Sept., for London, where I have some business to do before going on to Norwich the next day.

As I'm Pres. Elect of the Nat. Section, I hope to have you
