

I should like to know what he thinks its character should be. I presume some sort of crop.

Yours in every
gratitude

Dear Mr Pitt Rivers,

Will you ask
the General to do me a favour.

I have a very small farm in the Isle of Thanet.
In it there is a field
in which fifty years ago

There stood a very old oak, believed to mark the spot where ~~the~~ Augustine first preached.

I should like to renew the memorial in which Sean Hanley & others took a great interest.

It should be a tree, or a plain stone memorial or both.

It would be very good to have of the General to give me his advice, & if he does not object to the stone memorial.
