WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

August 13. 1895

My dear General Pitt Rivers

Thank you very much for your kind invitation unfortunately I shall have people staying with me in the week of the 26th but I can come to you on Friday the 23rd for a night if you can see me then - I should like to have with Lord Stammore & Mr Pelys Javis - I shall be glad to hear again from you about Comber Ditch which I shall commence work as soon as the necessary work is done. The appointment to be living in a great one. I am glad you are not going to let Beulborne run through the Bishop's hands. It will be much better to appoint a Broad-Church man. There are a few nominees - I thought it probable he would have been translated to Winchester but the Bishop of Exeter is to be the Bishop of Exeter.

I remain

Your most truly

H. Nassau Pley dell

I go to Sweden tomorrow for a few days & then to Geneva
