

Wood cut "Chalbury Hill" published
by Ackermann (Strand) in 1815.
12 in. x 9, french.

Engraving of a Railway train,
with an engine like "Puffing Billy"
in ^{South} Kensington Museum; published Fuller, London ^{Dated} 1825, framed 28 x 12 inches.

"Sampler", framed 19 x 15 in.
worked by Sarah Brown (of Chal-bury) in 1832.

Tungsten Bowl, 12 in. diameter
Mrs Bellinger 4 in. depth

3 or 4 Bags or Pockets, made by the women of Old Calabar, & worked with Beads

Amad.
Aug. 24/95

L1370

Aug. 23. 95.

CHALBURY RECTORY,

WIMBORNE

My dear Sir,

We shall beg your acceptance of the bottle
found in digging a grave
here this day week.

Will any of the objects,
named on the opposite page, be suitable for the Exhibition on Sept 2nd - & later days? If so, we will gladly send them as soon as we can ascertain if

There is a Carrier to Hurdley
to the day he goes from Wimborne.

We hope it will be a successful
show in all respects.

Believe me

Very faithfully Yours,
G. H. Billington.