WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

August 31. 1895.

My dear General Pitt Rivers
I forgot to say in my letter yesterday
that I called on Mr Purman on my way home after my very pleasant brush with Vint. To surprise about the dinner Lison and again today. He is now away on his holiday & will not return until next week. I remain

Yours very sincerely
A. Mansel-Pleydell
