Ranston,
Blandford.

Sept. 27th 1895

Dear General
Lady Baker heard by 2nd post yesterday from Mrs Neville Grenville to say: she regrets that her husband has to leave home on Tuesday next for the week.
At the same time she added, that if I did not mind having her to take us about she wd. receive us from Thursday to Saturday.
I have asked my wife to reply to this invitation in the affirmative - as the designs at Glastonbury are still done

But the Miss R. Q. Zepeto is unable to receive a transfer however "mistaken" under the circumstances.

I'm sorry that we shall miss Mr. R. Q. & your company.

Believe me

Yours truly

Robert W. Baker
