

he just recovery,
the change wd. probably relieve him & make his last days happier.

He seemed greatly delighted at the prospect of going
there, as the place
has great attraction for him. I am told that it is the usual effect of Tuberculosis to clear the mind.
Yr affec Son
S. J. Fox Pitt

L1419

Oct. 30th '95

George
Chertsey

My Dear Father

I have just heard from Lady Helena Carnegie that her father will feel
"proud & honoured"
by your sending him your books. She says too "my father is,
as you know, immensely

interested in any, or all archaeological subjects so that it will be a real pleasure to him to possess General Pitt Rivers's book - He will with pleasure look out a copy of his own book to send to your father." The address is: The Earl of Southesk, Kinnaird

Castle, Brechin, N.B.
The other address was:
Sir Thomas Grainger-
Stewart, 19 Charlotte
Square, Edinburgh.
It wd., I am sure,
be a great thing
for Arthur if he could be moved
to Bourne mouth,
even tho' he may