

all the stones of the Pictish class (except a few more recently discovered) are portrayed with fair accuracy.

In some cases the details are not quite accurate, and this specially applies where Ogam inscriptions are concerned
- the draftsmen employed having been quite ignorant in such matters. I am

Dear General Pitt-Rivers

Allow me to thank you very heartily for the present you have made me of your most valuable works.

My daughter tells me that you wish to see the little book I recently bought.

out, on Pictish Symbolism, so I am forwarding a copy of which I beg your acceptance - though indeed I feel diffidence in making so poor a return for your splendid gift.

If you have not yet studied the subject of my investigations, may I mention that the fullest information on that head is to be found in the two folio vols. published by the Spalding Club - by the late Dr. Stuart - entitled "The Sculptured Stones of Scotland", in which
