WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
— AND TELEGRAPH —

Nov. 14. 1895

My dear General Pitt Rivers
I should not like your old benevolence to be frustrated by me and without sending
you a line of sympathy, which I now offer much heartily to Mr. Pitt Rivers and yourself - I will write to you again in a few days, between me
and you by the
W. Maxwell
