

I enclose
you by this
N. Manual - Heydell

Answered.

L143

WHATCOMBE, W.D., BLANDFORD.

Decr 9. 1887

Dear General Pitt-Rivers

How very kind of you to give me a copy of your valuable Treatise on Locks & Keys
I have not had time
as yet to glance over the paper. The etymology of these two words is extremely interesting, and shows they were in use before the Saxon dispensation In this case as a matter

WHATGORE
BLANDFORD

Other language admit
 history a full up page
 and I may say unlocks I. I enclose you a letter I received from Mr John Solicitor
 of Blandford which will speak for itself. he is anxious to be your Under Sheriff - I suppose you have chosen your own Solicitor for the office. Will you please thank Mr Pitt-Rivers

In his kind message
 through my son. and invitation to short at Blandford. ~~that~~ week.
 I think he has told her I have lost all
 my sporting papers
 and have not taken
 out a certificate.
 The Editor of the Athlete sent me my letter in P. H. Pitts for correction which I did. I hope therefore it appeared
 yesterday in print