

L1736

Thorp
And. Dec. 5/95.

By my hand
5/95

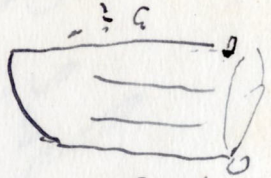

20, Ratchford Place Str

Recent Key found near Spence's Room

I have borrowed from our Library your 'Brimston Lock & Key' in hope of finding some information as to the subject of attached photograph which kindly return -

It was found in my presence near ~~an~~ a former smith's shop - <sup>which was by the side of an ancient</sup> ~~from~~ <sup>track way</sup> ~~from~~ <sup>run</sup> of a latrine - brownish

It has a "kind of bluish" and might be any ~~age~~ it was a fresh spring key found, and he told me I showed ~~the key~~ to Mr meeting "11/10" - I & present at an evening
When I showed it to ~~Mr~~ <sup>Mr</sup> which you remarked in writing the slot 2

these are - (in my possession) $\frac{1}{2}$  cask coffee the size of a
the size of a

all published by Prof. Blassius to the at a meeting of Socy Boleal Archaeology

Apologizing for this trouble, upon you - the main ground being that the Director of the course opens it to be Semitic, but unlike any thing he has in his collection

I am Sir

Yours obedient Serv<sup>t</sup>

W. S. Thorne Esq

To
dear Genl Pitt Rivers
L L L

~~May I send the return of the photographs~~ on the other side an three pellets like shown on the reverse of an Edw III Great