Dear W. Gray.

I'm just off to town so haven't much time. Pfordani's measurements (this is a matter of 8 years ago now) used to be in the office drawer, rolled, on foolscap and related to Tollaw, Farnham, Berwick &c. I don't know to what the General refers other than these. R. did some of the West Surrey Regiment I believe & these are published in ~~an~~ ^{an} ~~anthology~~ ^{anthology} form. At one time the returns used to be in the bottom part of the ~~upper~~ ^{upper} ~~part~~ ^{part} ~~of~~ ^{of} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~case~~ ^{case} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~office~~ ^{office}, where there was an depositing tackle book. But it is so long ago & the place has been ^{down} ~~upside~~ ^{down} since then. You ought however to find them. (M.J.)
