Chief Offices:—7, VICTORIA STREET,

LONDON, S.W.

January 14th. 1896.

Dear Sir,

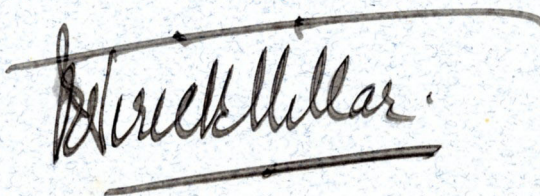

Under separate cover I am sending to you a copy of our Annual Report 1894-5 which has just been issued. From this you will see that during the past year the work of the League in defence of individual freedom and the rights of property was exceptionally heavy. By lectures and debates, the publication and distribution of literature, and correspondence in the press, the League has for thirteen years been vigorously combatting the pernicious and predatory doctrines of Socialism and Socialistic Radicalism; and the fruits of the League's efforts are now seen in the result of the late general election.

If the good and necessary work of the League both in and out of Parliament is to continue, those who sympathise with its aims must see that the League is not crippled through want of funds, and the Council therefore earnestly appeal to you to renew the contribution of £5 which you kindly sent on January 4th. 1888.

Trusting to receive a favourable reply,

I am, yours obediently,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "W. Wickham", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is cursive and somewhat stylized.

Secretary.
